WEBSITE COOKIE POLICY

What are cookies and how we use them.

A cookie is a small file which asks permission to be placed on your computer's hard drive. Cookies allow web applications to respond to you as an individual. The web application can tailor its operations to your needs, likes and dislikes by gathering and remembering information about your preferences.

Overall, cookies help us provide you with a better website, by enabling us to monitor which pages you find useful and which you do not. A cookie in no way gives us access to your computer or any information about you, other than the data you choose to share with us.

You can choose to accept or decline our cookies. Most web browsers automatically accept cookies, but you can usually modify your browser settings to decline cookies if you prefer. This may prevent you from taking full advantage of the website.

We take your privacy very seriously and comply with the recent UK and EU law on handling cookies and provide (you) the user with means to remove such cookies or prevent your computer from accepting them in the future via the following specific browser/mobile information points.

Use of Cookies

As a general rule The Real Insurance Group (or any of its trading styles) websites do not place any intrusive cookies onto the device you use to access the Internet. The cookies we use are required for our analytics software, they collect information about customers browsing experience when on our website and the results are used to develop and improve of our sites.
